

KENT MENDENHALL

ASLA | Principal / Partner

A dynamic thinker with over 29 years of experience, Kent has practiced landscape architecture in the Los Angeles and Dallas markets. As a design leader, his interests lie in assembling creative solutions that balance nature, composition, and culture. Kent is committed to extending the landscape with complements all design disciplines to support the greater good.

Kent leads Hospitality and Urban practice areas, fostering a great alliance with the office and providing Studio Outside with exceptional expertise. Kent has led award-winning projects across the globe, predominantly in North America, the Middle East, and the Far East. He is invested in the research and design potentials in landscape architecture and serves on the Landscape Architecture and Regional & Community Planning Advisory council at Kansas State University.

Kent lives in east Dallas with his two boys. Kent frequents as much live music as possible, and as his last legal vice, Kent goes out of his way to visit Frank Lloyd Wright's works where possible. Currently, he has photo-documented 244+ Wright buildings, equating to approximately 58% of the legend's extant work.
